H. EAGLES,
for Secretary to the Insurance Committee.

CIRCULAR NO. 6, DATED 26TH DECEMBER 1891.

In order that an account may be secured of the number of insured persons serving in each office, the undersigned has the honor to request the Heads of Departments to maintain a register, in their offices in the accompanying form, of all officials attached to their respective offices who have insured their lives under Government.

Whenever an insured is retired, transferred or dismissed or whenever he resigns the public service, dies or attains the age of 55 years, a note thereof should be made in red ink against his name in the register in the column of remarks provided therein.

A. RANGASWAMAIENGAR,
Secretary to the Insurance Committee.
